Obituary

Lula D. McCaskill Outlaw was born to the late Jim and Jimmie Lou McCaskill of Dickinson, Alabama. Lula attended Wilson Hall High School in Grove Hill, Alabama. Lula moved to New York to make a better life for herself and at that time her two beautiful daughters. She worked for Steinberg & Kaslo Jewelry Company, from there she sought an even better job with Piccadilly Hotel and then moving on to work at the Famous Waldorf Astoria Hotel where she became the star employee and was offered the position of Supervisor but declined. Lula was a hard and dedicated employee and was admired and respected by her co-workers. Lula met and married Archie Outlaw of New York City and out of this union she had two additional beautiful children. They later divorced, but still remained friends.

Lula was preceded in death by two sisters, Mrs. Daisy (late John) Bettis and Mrs. Rebecca Todd; six brothers, Jimmy McCaskill, Jr., John D. McCaskill, Sr., Frank McCaskill, Billy McCaskill, William McCaskill and Donald Davis.

Lula leaves to cherish her memories: four children, Carolyn McCaskill, Lillie McCaskill, Bobbie McCaskill and Archie L. Outlaw, Jr. all of New York; one surviving brother, Robert (Mary) McCaskill of Dixon Mill, Alabama; four surviving sisters, Catherine (late Julius) Pearson, Cora McCaskill, Kathal (Hilary) Joseph all of New York City and Stella McCaskill of Calera, Alabama; four surviving sisters-in-law, Annie Pearl McCaskill, Mittie Lou McCaskill both of Dickinson, Alabama, Shirley Berry McCaskill of Birmingham, Alabama and Jeraldine Davis of New York City; nine grandchildren, Antonio (LaTanya), Jamel, Cory, Belicia, Michael, Christopher, Stanton, Wesley, Archia and Michael Anthony; twenty great grandchildren; a host of nieces and nephews that she loved dearly; and four special friends, Annick, Marva, Lucille and Mr. Reed.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR IN CHARGE

RECESSIONAL

*A million times we've needed you.
A million times we've cried.
If love along could have saved you,
you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we loved you still.
In our hearts you hold a special place
no one else can ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go lone;
for part of us went with you
the day that God called you home.*
