Obituary

Marvin Wayne Jones was born to the proud parents, Robert and Ardelia Jones. Marvin was born on November 3, 1957 in the old Sydenham Hospital.

Marvin attended school in New York City and eventually earned a GED. Marvin worked various jobs. His last job was at a Help USA Shelter where he worked his way up to Shift Supervisor.

Marvin was an active member of our Harlem Community. He was well known and respected in the neighborhood. He was a part of the initial planning for the annual PS 36 Father's Day Cookout, that grew larger and larger each year. Marvin was known to mentor youth in the community.

Marvin, affectionately called "Jughead", was a caring and loving individual that always made time for other's needs and concerns without hesitation. Marvin touched many lives and will be truly missed.

Marvin Wayne leaves to celebrate his life: children, Alicia Newton, Monica Jones, and Marcus Walker-Jones; grandson, Jahziah Smith; his life partner, Martha Phelps, and children, Erma Pfeffer and C. Matthew Pfeffer; grandchildren, Cuba Butler and Zuri Butler; siblings, Judith Johnson, Mildred Jones-King, Regina Madison and Barbara Barreto (Helen, James, and Robert deceased); aunts, Vernice Whibbee and Annette Outlaw; in-laws, Angelo Barreto and Mabel Jones; and a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Marvin - We love and miss you, never to be forgotten.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family

Final Disposition

Oxford Hills Crematory Chester, New York

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
