Obituary

Mary L. Jackson was born in New York City to Louis and Elizabeth Williams. She was the wife of Eugene Jackson, the mother to Richard Bell, mother-in-law to Arminthia Bell, and grandmother of three, Richard, Jr., Mike, and Monique. Mary worked in housekeeping for many years, where she was known to make any environment a brighter place.

She is preceded in death by her husband, son, and five siblings. She was a devoted sister to her one surviving sibling, Richard Williams. She had many nieces and nephews including, Kim Beckman and Edward Jackson who were a vital part of her maintaining her independence at home until her passing.

Mary will always be known for her beautiful dimples and her zest for life. She was known for her out pouring love for family, neighbors, and anyone who knew her. Although she has travelled on, her spirit and her love will forever be with us.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
