Reflections of Life

Shawn Deneen Scott was born in Newark, NJ on December 11, 1965 to Elizabeth Scott and the late William Schrubey. Shawn has three lovely children, Andra S., Qudia L., and Dayshawn Scott.

Shawn loved her family. Everyone would say she had a way with words. Shawn possessed great strength and dignity. She had a superior strength to deal with others as she remained “real”, and down to earth.

Shawn always said what she meant and meant what she said. In 2013 Shawn moved to Manhattan, New York until her passing from this side of the Jordan.

Shawn was preceded in death by her father, William Schrubey and one brother, Charles Pickett.

Shawn leaves behind to cherish her memories: her three wonderful children, Andra, Qudia, and Dayshawn Scott; her beautiful mother, Elizabeth Scott; five strong brothers, Vincent Flagg, William Jr. Flagg, Terrance E. Schrubey, Deon D. Scott and Terrell Scott; one uncle, Rayford Scott; two aunts, Zell M. Scott and Alma Norman; six grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

2 Timothy 4:1-7

4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: 2 Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. 3 For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4 They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. 5 But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry.

6 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
