Obituary

Brenda P. Jones departed this life on Wednesday, November 29, 2017. She was born in Franklin, Virginia to the late Eddie (Percy) and Emmabella Jones. Brenda was the middle child and their only daughter. She was affectionately known by her family as "Baygal", which was basically "Babygirl" with a country accent.

In the early 50's, she moved to Newark, New Jersey with her family. Brenda attended the Newark public school system. Soon after she attended a man power training school where she studied to be a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN). In 1975, Brenda started working for Trinitas Hospital formerly known as Saint Elizabeth Hospital. She would work there for over 30 years. After retiring from Trinitas Hospital she went into private duty nursing until her health began to decline. Brenda loved her job as a nurse. She took pride in taking care of her patients and she loved doing it.

Brenda was a no nonsense individual which was sometimes mistaken as being mean. Brenda was more of a straight to the point type of woman rather than mean. If you knew her you knew that she spoke her mind and said what she meant and meant what she said, but also was the same woman that would give you her last dime and the coat off her back. All you had to do was ask her and it was yours. Brenda was a kind hearted person with a great sense of humor. She loved her family and friend immensely. Brenda didn't attend church, but she prayed every night and had a strong relationship with God.

Brenda was predeceased by her two brothers, Doug and Eddie, Jr.

Brenda leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter; Shelby Sanders (Rudy), her son; Troy Jones and his fiancé; Kecia Brodders, her grandchildren; Maryam (Shantee), Jazmine, Briona, Jared, Nakeem, David, and Malachi, great grandchildren; Darrel and Jordan, her best friend Mary Terrell, and favorite neighbor Penny Gilbert, all her god daughters, and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Carry My Soul

Hello world that I now leave behind
Hold your heads up and continue to shine
This ole earth has loaned me yall
And believe me when I say, I had a ball

The joy we've shared that filled my space
He'll carry my soul but can't take yall place
The tears may fall on your once smiling face
But I love when I hear the song amazing grace

So I'm alright now and out of harms way
No one is promised that we are here to stay
Days may come when you might feel alone
Now we can just talk without using a phone

Twinkle twinkle you should now find a star
I'll always be with yall no matter how far
So goodbye for now as this journey ends
I see you all later my loved one and friends

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
