Obituary

Morris McKinley Allen was born on April 3, 1965. He was affectionately known as "Moe".

Morris grew up in Andrew Jackson Houses where he lived most of his life. It wasn't an easy life as Morris faced some challenges. Morris did not let that stop him. He pushed through adversity and pursued a career in Ophthalmology. Morris beat the odds and received his Bachelor's degree in Ophthalmology. He was very proud and called family members to brag about it. That smile would light up a room.

With joy, there often comes pain as we all know too well. Morris life came to an end on November 23, 2017, when God called him home.

Morris is survived by: his mother, Yvonne Patricia Allen; father, Marvin Allen, Sr.; his wife, Lucila Allen; daughter, Judy Allen; brothers, Marvin, Jr., Sean, Duane and Molique; sisters, Deborah, Dellean (deceased), Shavonne, Felicia, Simia and Akira; and aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
