Obituary

Mr. Earl W. Moore departed his life on November 24, 2017 in New York City. He was born on May 9, 1938 in Georgetown, South Carolina to the late Mr. John W. Moore/Mr. Johnny and Blanch Holmes.

Earl W. Moore received his education in the public schools of Georgetown, South Carolina. After completing his formal education, he moved to New York City.

Earl W. Moore had a passion for the good life and an entrepreneurial zest he pursued throughout his life.

He leaves to mourn: his son, Walton Trice Alston of Georgetown, SC; one brother, Dexter Holmes of Virginia; two grandchildren, Derrick Fennick of Moncks Corner, SC and Hasea Spikes of New York City; three nephews; and a host of cousins, other relatives and special friends.

We Will Always Remember His Voice, Style, and Personality.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
