Precious Moments

Lester A Eubanks was born on June 29, 1920 to the late Hartwell and Leora Eubanks in Irvington, NJ. He attended his school years in the Newark School system where he eventually graduated from West Side High School.

Lester grew up with Elizabeth Dudley fell in love and eventually married her. From their union of 43 years five children were born: Michael, Sheila, James, Vincent and Catherine.

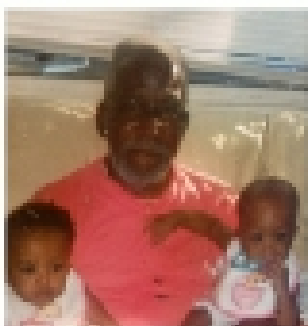

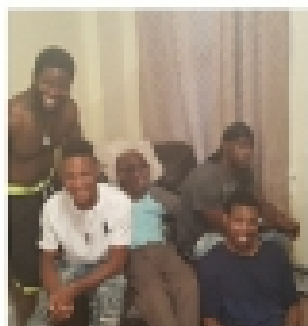

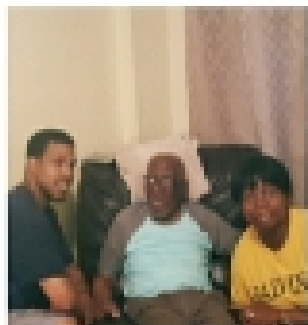

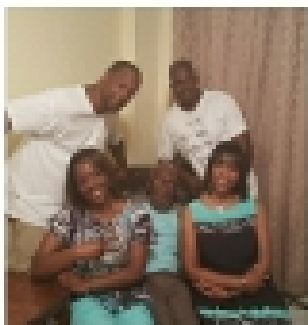

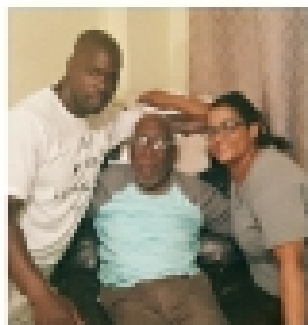

Lester served in the United States Army and received an honorable discharge after 4 years of service. After his military years Lester worked at General Service Administration (GSA) where he retired. For many years he was a faithful member of the Queen of Angels Roman Catholic Church in Newark, NJ. Lester, served as an Alter boy during his early years at Queen of Angels R. C. Church in Newark, New Jersey and as he raised his children in the church he could always be seen as a faithful usher in the service of Christ. He thoroughly enjoyed bowling and spent many years on a bowling league. He loved watching and discussing everything sports and politics with his family and friends. Spending time, especially the holidays and celebrating birthdays with his kids, grands and great grands was the highlight of his life. Lester will be remembered for his contagious smile, great sense of humor and his giving heart! Lester would give you the shirt off his back and would do everything to help support his family.

On November 30, 2017, Lester A. Eubanks entered into his ultimate resting place at the age 97. He passed away peacefully at his home in Newark, NJ.

Lester was predeceased by his wife, his parents, his sister Ida Brown and brothers James, Harvey and Leo Eubanks.

Lester leaves to mourn and carry on his legacy of support and love of family onto his sons Michael, James & Vincent Eubanks; daughters Sheila Pugh and Catherine Eubanks; his daughter in law Norma Jean Brown of Toms River; 11 grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; sisters Leora & Helen Eubanks, Madelyn Hicks and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

1 There is an appointed time for everything,
and a time for every affair under the heavens.

2 A time to give birth, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build.

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

5 A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.

6 A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away.

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.

8 A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.
