Obituary

Wayne Suber was born on December 18th, 1970 to Betty Suber and the late Wayne Banks in Newark, NJ.

Wayne passed away on December 4th, 2017 at St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem, PA at the age of 46.

Wayne was the loving brother of LaTanya Suber AcloQue, the late Soladean Hasan Suber and Lawrence Banks.

Wayne was raised in Newark, NJ, he started his education at the Leaguers's Head Start Center, Blessed Sacrament Elementary School and Louise A. Spencer Elementary School-upon graduating from Louise A. Spencer he received special honors and was inducted into the "National Honor Society. He went on to attend Essex Catholic boys High School in East Orange, NJ where he was a valuable asset to the wrestling and Jr. Varsity Football Team-being voted the most "valuable player". Wayne went on to obtain a Bachelor's Degree in "Communications" from Kean University in 1994. Upon graduation he gained employment at Kean University as a "Financial Aid-Advisor" to undergraduate students for ten years.

In June of 2000, Wayne married Sonia Mendez in Newark, NJ, he is survived by his mother Betty Suber, wife, Sonia Mendez Suber; children, Imani Suber, Umar, Taj, Nia and Mecca Suber; sister LaTanya S. Suber, AcloQue and Lawrence Banks (Maryland); special nephews, Elijah AcloQue and Shaheed Wright; nieces, Shavon McCullough and Michaelle AcloQue; grandparents, Frances Taylor, the late William Taylor, the late Eddie and Mary Banks. Also a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Special thanks to his best friend of many years Daryl Ewell.

To my husband Wayne Suber: I will always love you, it was love at first sight. You were not just my tutor in college but in life. You are a wonderful husband and tather to me and the children. You are and always be my heart. 22 years was not long but filled with a lot of wonderful and great memories. My life without you will be hard, but I know you no longer have too suffer. I will always be your Puerto Rican princass. Hith and when I see you again I will run to you. My angel wor will never be the same.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
