Reflections of Life

On June 17th 1991 a boy with the million dollar smile was born. He was raised mainly in East Orange, NJ. Gibril was Cassandra Young and George Morris youngest son together. He was a modest student with rough edges. His 1st time on the football field he was a natural athlete maybe that's why Noble his 1 year old likes football.

Gibril was blessed with 3 young kings, Gibril Jr. 2, Noble 1, and Zubair 3 months. He was the youngest of SOC (son of Cassandra). His 2 older brothers are Yusef and Jahquan Young. And they shall honor him by always being there for their nephews. He grew up with Dadra, Danielle, and Dominique as sisters but his 1st cousins. Charming like his grandpa Jimmy (James) Young. He was also loved and adopted into his brother's dad side too. "Uncle Gibril"

A young man with an old soul loved his maternal grandmother, Mary Estany and hung tight with his uncle, Terrence Young. He also has an uncle David and Joseph Goad. "Is we soaring or flying today". Gibril was rooted in caring and making sure his family of friends were always good. When he ate they all ate. "If we can't take care of family who will" was one of many expressions used. Gibril loved the kids. The Newark and East Orange community will miss him too.

On this day of celebration he has left us here on earth to walk to a gate where he is reunited with his mother and little sister, Tyneta Hargrove. For he has walked out of our lives on November 30, 2017 as an old soul at 26 years old. I may not be with you physically but no one can take me from your heart or memories we shared. A million smile that's now a priceless one!!

No Need To Worry, No Need To Cry

No need to worry, no need to cry nor question God and wonder why. My heart's at peace you're wondering how because my soul is with Jesus and I'm resting now. The services I gave for my family and friends were services of love, even to the end. Loved one's now look to Jesus for He knows best. He carried me home for I needed the rest. Family don't you cry and don't be afraid for me, already a way has been made. Keep trusting in Jesus and doing His will, through Jesus my presence you will always feel. Yes, my heart's at peace and my soul's at rest and you wonder how; it's because I'm with Jesus and I'm resting now. I'm in a better place as long as I'm with Jesus. I'm resting, just like a white dove I've flown away yet. I'm resting now.
