Obituary

HUBERT ELLIS BROWN, 82 of New York City, passed away peacefully on December 4, 2017.

Hubert was born on September 12, 1935 in Advance Mills, Virginia. He was one of ten children born to the late Chauncey and Lucille Brown. He was preceded in death by two sisters, Marie Brown Golden and Ruby Brown Wheeler; five brothers, Charles, William, Edward, Harvey and Raymond.

Hubert was educated in the Charlottesville-Albemarle County Public School System, attending the historic Albemarle Training and Jackson P. Burley schools. After leaving Virginia, he was employed by the United States Post Office for over 25 years.

Hubert was baptized and joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Advance Mills, Virginia at an early age and attended this church until he relocated in New York City.

Hubert was a loving and caring husband and father and was always quiet and soft spoken. He is survived by: a loving and devoted wife, Josephine Cherry Brown for over 50 years; three daughters, Denise Brown Taylor (Jerome), Valerie Brown Glover (Manique) and Karen Brown; one son, Hubert Ellis Brown, Jr.; eight grandchildren, Jerome, Kendale, Shaquille, Juwan, Jasmine, Marquis, Manique and Moriah; one brother, Howard O'Neal Brown of Wilmington, NC; a sister, Pearl Brown Evans of Ocala, FL; sisters-in-law, Pervella Core, Earlene Hobbs, Margaret Cherry all of Goldsboro, NC and Mabel Cherry of New York, NY; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Chain Will Link Again

*Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you, you are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

A Tribute of Love

Our Family Circle has been broken
A link gone from our chain
But though we've parted for a while
We know we'll meet again
Someday we hope to meet you
Someday we know not when
We shall meet in a better land
And never part again

In Loving Memory,
The Family
