Obituary

Ivyline Grizzle, was born to Sybil Brown and Leonard Grizzle, on October 13, 1950, in the district of Salt Marsh, Trelawny, Jamaica, West Indies. Later throughout her adolescent years, she lived in Kingston with her mother and the rest of the family. As she matured into adulthood, she married Richard Box and started a family in Montego Bay. During her years living in Montego Bay, her culinary and entrepreneurship skills were on display, where she owned and operated a restaurant and bar. Business boomed for many years and later took a downturn. This prompted Ivyline migration to the US, in search of a better life.

Anyone who knows Ivy, knows she has the heart of a lion. She was strong willed, likes things her way; was very determined and perseveres at whatever she sets her mind to. Man...can I tell you...Ivy was a HARD worker; a Certified Nurse's Assistant (CNA) by profession. She bathed and fed her patients, even when they were sometimes stubborn. This she did for many years.

Ivyline was fun loving and vivacious, she could tell you old time stories and you'd laugh from now until tomorrow morning. She was not only fun-loving, she was a fashionista. Ivy loved to dress, she dressed to impress! All white, classy clothes were her style. It is said, the heart of a human, is through their belly. No food was too expensive for Ivy to buy and eat; fine dining was the order of the day! Ivy lived a full life, eating good food, dressing the best and going on vacations. Oh yes, she enjoyed free flights and have been to many places. Now her time on earth has ended and she has flown home to glory.

Ivyline is survived by dear friend Russell, children Allison, Richard and Andrea, grandchildren, Andre Hall, Andrea Hall, Ronaldo Box and Tayvon Box, many sisters and brothers and a host of relatives and friends.

Sleep on Ivy, sleep and take your rest!

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
