Obituary

Mrs. Nancy Taylor Satterthwaite was born on January 4, 1940 in Ridgeland, South Carolina to the late Jacob and Lillie Kennedy Taylor. She received her education in South Carolina, Jasper County Public School system.

Nancy moved to New York and found a job working in a factory for some years. She had six children, five girls and one boy, Charisse, Annette, Francine, Shirley, Sharon and her only son, Harold Taylor. After raising her six children, she found herself wanting to do something else, so she took a training class for two weeks to become a Home Health Aide. That job gave her joy to know that she was helping someone that could not help themselves.

Nancy became a member of The Greater Refuge Temple in New York, New York.

My mother found the love of her life, Charile Satterthwaite. As a loving grandmother, she raised four out of eleven grandchildren, Tawanna, Calvin, Reggie, Rashawn, Jamila, Michelle, Khadi, Saeed, Shaniece, Shalematu and Sathiatou; a number of great-grandchildren, Amour, Johnathan, Josh and a new baby girl on the way.

She leaves to honor and cherish her wonderful memories: one brother, Stephen Taylor; one sister, Rosa Holsey; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Everyone please pray for Aunt Rosa.
Thank you!

I received a call from God on December 13th and He informed me that my new home is ready. My new home is complete, and oh what a gorgeous sight. It has a lovely pearly white gate in heaven. Everyday is Sunday. At the gate I can see all my loved ones that I have mourned for in the past. My old home was only temporary, but my new home is forever.

I am at peace now with no more pain or needles. I have a personal designer who has fitted me with my very own white robe with wings. I am an angel now. This is my new address:

I don't have a phone number, but if you call on God I will be there listening. At this time I would like to say, "Thank you for all the prayers, phone calls, cards, flowers and other acts of kindness that you all have given to me and my family. Thank you."

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. Also thank you, Charisse, for always being there helping me with Mommy and thank you to my son, Saeed you were always there helping me too. May God bless you all for your thoughtfulness and concern.
