The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Reflections of Life

Juanita C. Moses was born on September 12, 1941 in Tuskegee, Alabama to the late Tommie Lee and Sarah Cowan.

She graduated from the Tuskegee Institute High School in Tuskegee, Alabama and later relocated to Paterson, New Jersey with her family. She was employed as a domestic worker for many years.

Sister Juanita was a faithful servant of the Neighborhood Baptist Church for over forty years. Where there was a need, Sister Juanita was there to serve. She was the chairperson for the Missionaries, the Women and Hospitality Ministry. She was also a member of the Pastor's Care and was a member of the Choir. Whatever Sister Juanita's hands found to do, she did it without complaint. She was a reliable, dedicated, conscientious Christian with a strong sense of responsibility. With her light shining, her work spoke for her.

Sister Juanita was a phenomenal woman. She was the most sweetest and caring person you could have ever known. She was an array of sunshine. She loved to talk, was loveable and a genuine and sincere person. She was the best mother, grandmother and friend, "A Mother can replace many things, but nothing and nobody can ever replace a Mother".

She was preceded in death by her husband Ernest Moses and a brother, Elbert Cowan.

On Sunday, December 17th, 2017, an angel visited her home and took out beloved mother, grandmother and sister Juanita home to her eternal rest

She leaves to cherish wonderful memories, her loving children, two sons; Herbert Cowan, Trenton, NJ and Eugene Moses, Newark, NJ; three daughters, Felicia E. Cowan, Mountainside, NJ, Barbara Jenkins, a son-in-law Julius Jenkins, Tammy Moses (Maurice) and an adopted daughter, Sandra Sellers Pineda all of Paterson, NJ., seven grandchildren: Tamasjah Cowan, Hameen Nashon Cowan, Beckley West VA, Sha'mryra Moses, Satasia Barrett, Amir Jenkins, Savon Jenkins; two great-grandchildren and as well as adopted grandchildren; Nadiera Sellers, Nadir and Ayonna Pineda all of Paterson, NJ, two brothers, Tommie Cowan, Jr., Passaic, NJ and William Cowan, Gadsen, Alabama. Five sisters, Martha Tyson, Mary Howard (Doyle) of Paterson, NJ, Mildred Cowan of Passaic, NJ, Bernice Gotrell of Hackensack, NJ and Florida Gunn of Gadsen, Alabama, sister-in-law, brothers-in-law, and a host of nieces nephews, cousins, friends and a special friend, Madge Stokes and her beloved Neighborhood Baptist Church Family.

She Wished No One A Last Farewell

She wished no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodbye.
She was gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,
But time so far only proves,
How much we miss her yet.
God gives us strength to face it,
And courage to bear the blow.
But what it meant to “love” and lose her,
No one will ever know.
