Obituary

Apy Ruth Zamor was born to Joseph Zamor and Philomena Jean on May 15, 1951. She was one of four children. She was born and raised in Cap Hatien, Haiti and immigrated to the US during the mid 80's.

Apy was a very caring and generous person. She took care of as many family members as she could. Even her older siblings came to her whenever they needed help. She loved to cook food for anyone who asked. Apy was someone that you could call for any support that you needed.

Her generosity didn't stop with just friends and family. Many of neighbors loved her dearly. She was never afraid to say hi and share a smile with anyone around her. She was very selfless. Apy always believed in giving to those less fortunate. She would often donate clothes to Haiti and gave monthly contributions to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

Her kindness didn't stop with just friends and family. Apy was a certified nursing assistant for over 10 years. She loved helping people so much that she made it her career. She took care of so many sick people. Some of which became her close friends.

Apy leaves to cherish her memory: her sons, Pierre-Richard Zamor and Ashley Supreme; her husband, Michael Supreme; her siblings, Naomi, Ketia, and Jethro Zamor.

Apy was well loved and will be missed!

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
