Reflections of Life

Mary Jones-Jackson was born on March 27, 1958 in Exmore, Virginia, to Mary Lee Adams and Robert Trehearn. She was the only child. Mary was affectionately called "Miss Mary" and was loved by all who knew her.

In her teen years, Mary and her mom moved to Paterson, New Jersey, and she continued her education in the Paterson Public School System.

In her younger years, Mary was employed in the health services field as a certified nursing assistant. Eventually, she developed an appreciation for life, and caring for others became her passion. She then decided to become a 24-hour caretaker for those she knew that were in need.

She met and married Allen Jackson in 2005. He departed his life shortly thereafter.

She was predeceased by her parents, Mary Lee and Robert, and one daughter; Angela Jones.

Mary departed this life on Monday, December 25th, 2017 Christmas day at St. Joseph's Regional Medical Center.

Left to cherish precious memories are her daughter; Juvon Jones, her grandchildren; Calynda, Tia, Tinasha, and Travis, her great-grandchildren; Deis'janya, Jahmire, Darryl, Jacier, Jayvion, and Tamilya, and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
