Remembering Marilyn

Marilyn Brown was born on May 21, 1989 in Brooklyn, NY. She attended South Shore High School. After High School she began working as an HHA.

Marilyn was a loving and devoted mother to her children. She is survived by Morgan Yates, Zion Buckner, Isabel Buckner and Quincy Buckner. Parents Veronica and Leonard Yates and Veta Brown. Grandmothers Robenia McQueen and Dorothy Johnson.

Marilyn was preceded in death by Zion Brown-Yates and Grandfather Leo Yates. She leaves behind 5 sisters and 7 brothers, one sister in law and one brother in law. Two uncles, a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, and cousins. She also leaves behind many friends she thought of as an extended family.

Marilyn had a passion for children and it showed in the way she cared for her nephews and nieces. She had a one-of-a-kind sense of humor and a contagious laugh. She was a gentle soul with a kind heart.

Marilyn loved cooking, going out to eat and trying new foods. She usually spent a lot of time trying these new foods with her sister and nephew. Marilyn loved music and movies but most of all she loved to laugh. She loved her family and her family and friends loved her.

God Looked Around His Garden

*God looked around His garden
and found an empty place.
Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He placed His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.*
