Obituary

Willetta Townsend was born on April 25th, 1955 to Susan Dickey (predeceased) and William T. Logan. Although Willetta was born in Pennsylvania, she spent most of her adult life in New York. As a teenager she was a student at the NYC High School of Fashion and in her adult years she worked for the NYC Department of Sanitation.

Willetta was known for her kind spirit and never had a negative word to say about anyone. She loved listening to music, enjoyed dancing, and loved to sew and design her own fashions. She loved to laugh and spend time with her family. She cared about her friends as if they were her family, and was a second mother or big/little sister, and a devoted friend to her family. Caring for her daughter Samantha was her number one priority. Willetta was a woman of sincerity and compassion towards others. She was also a very private woman who did not want to make known to concerned friends and family members that her health was declining, and she ultimately succumbed to her illness. She will be sorely missed, but not forgotten

Willetta is survived by her father, William T. Logan; her loving daughter, Samantha Townsend; her sister, Vanessa Porter and brother-in-law, Donald Porter. She is predeceased by her sister, Marshall Crosson, stepmother, Lois Logan and step-brother, David Sweeney. She also leaves to mourn a special uncle, Gregory George; and loving cousins, Russell “Butch” Rembert, Jr., Viola “Missy” Rembert, Robert “Bobby” Rembert, Henry “P.J.” Corbin, Jr. and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and neighbors from New York and Harrisburg, PA, who were so very dear to her.

In Our Hearts

*We thought of you with love today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart...*

Acknowledgements

Thanks to Willetta's Harrisburg family who have now become our extended family.

Thanks to family and friends who are here and those who were unable to be here, but came together to pay their respect, reflect and celebrate the life of Willetta, on such an untimely notice.
