Obituary

Terrence Steven Boone was the oldest son born on August 18, 1983 to Eugenia Mickens and the late Ronald Steven Boone.

Terrence, also known as “The Great 1” or “Great,” was a happy and carefree person. He rarely let anything bother him for long. Terrence always had a joke or a story that would make you laugh.

He attended Martin Luther King High School. Terrence was employed by two schools, Chama Day Care Center, then Regis High School. His career choice was ironic because he often said, “I don’t like kids.” Yet, he would help them, wrestle with them and even go to their prom. It’s true that Terrence did not like kids. He loved them.

Terrence enjoyed watching movies. He could recite some of them word for word. Anybody who watched “A Christmas Story” or “The Last Dragon” with him knows this to be a fact. Terrence was a major wrestling fan. He loved to read, play Spades, travel and listen to his “type of music.”

Terrence was preceded in death by his father, Ronald. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Eugenia; brothers, Christopher, Jason and Jordan; sister, Mahogany; grandmother, Patricia Boone; grandfather, Edward Boone; aunts, Felicia Mickens and Antoinette Boone; uncles, Michael and Kelly Boone; stepfather, Robert Hoating; godparents, Todd and Nadine; great aunts, Thelma, Regina and Janice (Jenny); godbrothers, Todd (TJ) and Travis; best friends for life, Jemal (Mel), Gustavo (Goose), Niquan, Raheem (Smurf), Terence (the Boi), and Kim (Nuke); our very dear, Aunt Miriam; as well as a host of cousins, extended aunts, uncles, and friends.

Terrence was called home on Sunday, January 7, 2018. He will meet his maternal grandmother for the first time.

He Is Gone

*You can shed tears that he is gone, Or you can smile because he lived,
You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back, Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see him Or you can be full of the love that you shared, You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember him and only that he is gone or you can cherish his memory and let it live on, You can cry and close your mind be empty and turn your back, Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*
