Obituary

Gregory Henry Ramsey Crawford was born January 10, 1993 at Margaret Hague Hospital in Jersey City, New Jersey to Rochelle Ramsey 10 minutes after his identical twin brother Greg Crawford. He was gifted to the Crawford family at the age of 1 years old. Gregory is survived by his twin brother Greg, brothers Hasson, Hydeem, Raheem, twin sisters Basimah and Salimah, Afiya and Stacy.

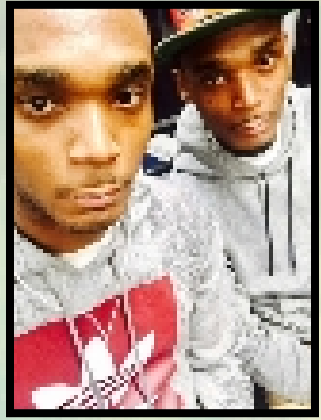

He attended P.S. #15 Elementary School and Snyder High School in Jersey City. After which he worked in various areas of construction and electrical. One of his famous nicknames was the name MacGyver coined due to his knack for fixing things and figuring things out.

Despite only having two biological children he was known to surround himself with his nieces who all adored his sense of humor. Gregory had a heart of gold and was always happy to lend a helping hand. There was no task related to 590 Garfield that he was not involved in, often happily working alongside his dad.

When he was 21 years old he blessed our family with a son named Nathaniel (Pooka) born with Carisma Thomas and he recently welcomed a daughter Yaniah into this world.

Gregory was a jack of all trades who made time for work and play. You could find him in the house entertaining with his many friends or spending time with his children and siblings. His laughter filled up a room and echoed throughout the house. Gregory was everyone's side kick who was great company and fun. He would keep you smiling with his contagious laugh and no one could every stay upset when he was around. Although he could not dance very well, he enjoyed nodding his head to his favorite Artist Fetty Wap and jamming to Bob Marley's Redemption Song. He was nicknamed Upside Down Cake because his unique approach to life created his own set of rules. The most consistent thing about Gregory was his ability to show everyone he came in contact with that he loved them.

Gregory was predeceased by his mother Rochelle Ramsey and his brother Clifton Crawford. He will be missed dearly by his mother and father Maureen and Kester Crawford, James, brother in law-Jason, Dejon, Zaire, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little-but not too long,
 and not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love that we once shared,
 Miss me-but let me go.
 For this is a journey that we all must take,
 And each must go alone.
 It's all part of the Master's plan,
 A step on the road to home.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart,
 Go to the friends we know.
 Laugh at the things we use to do
 Miss me-but let me go.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
