Obituary

Jewel Franklin Jones was born on April 4, 1936 in Ozark, Alabama. She moved to New York at a young age along with her mother and siblings. After attending high school, she decided to work in the food industry until she retired.

Early in 1970, Jewel started studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses until she was baptized on July 2, 1971 in the Central Harlem Congregation. There was another highlight of her life when she met her husband, Bernard, and on July 10, 1978 they were married.

She was a shy and mostly quiet person. She loved to talk about the Bible and life based on her past experiences and was firm in her beliefs. Of all the challenges she faced in her life and her service to Jehovah, the greatest was her sickness and unfortunately it led to her death on January 4, 2018 at the age of 81 at Bellevue Hospital in New York City.

She was preceded in death by her parents, siblings, Eloise, Lula, Mertie, Ida, James and Charlie. Those left to cherish in memory include: her husband, Bernard Jones; her children, Marvin Smith, Steven Forrest Williams, and Paul Douglas Williams; ten grandchildren, twenty-two great grandchildren, four great great grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

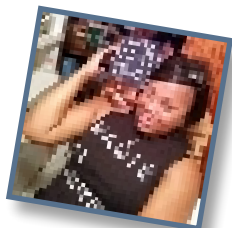

She will always be remembered for her love and devotion to Jehovah, her warm personality and her big smile.

He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away, Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay, From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.
