Miss you Mom...

A thousand words could not bring you back..

I know because I tried..

A thousand tears could not bring you back..

I know because I cried.

I really miss you mom, Tell me:

*I miss you mom, Although your soul is at rest,
and your body free from pain, The world would be like heaven if I had you back again.*

*You're always in my thoughts no matter
where I go, Always in my heart,*

Because I love you so.

However long my life might last, Whatever land I view, Whatever joy or grief is mine, I still remember you. I really miss you mom

Obituary

Reflection of Life

Elaine Jacobs, was born May 4, 1945 in Washington, D.C. to the late William (Bill) Jacobs Sr. & Rosa Hite-Jacobs. She was also preceded in death by her son Byron Lamar Jacobs, her twin sister Evonne Jacobs- Long and her brother George Jacobs.

Elaine graduated from W. S. Creecy High School in 1966 located in Rich Square, N. C. After graduation she moved to Washington, D.C. and then to New Jersey where she lived in the cities of Paterson, East Orange, and Irvington being her final residence.

She was employed by the Internal Revenue Service for 36 years until she retired in 2014.

Elaine was always eager to learn new things. You could always depend on her to have the latest magazines: Ebony, Essence, Travel, Cooking, and Health to name a few. She was knowledgeable in so many areas. She loved politics, MSNBC, CNN, The View, and Rev. Al Sharpton. She would always remind you to vote. Like her twin (Evonne) she loved crossword puzzles, word find & Sudoku.

She leaves to cherish her memory one son, Lawrence Nicholas Jacobs; three grandchildren, Tyshawn Lamar Williams, Jessica Nicole Williams, & Taranisha Uniqua Williams; great-grand child, Zakiah La'Nasia Williams; siblings, Ethel Hopkins (Irvington, N.J.), William Jacobs Jr. (Rich Square, N.C.), Julia Jacobs-Williams (Rahway, N.J.), Sally Jacobs-Harmon, (Greenville, N.C.) and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

She will be truly missed.

Special thanks goes out to her medical team at St. Barnabas Medical Center who were so caring, compassionate and professional.
