Obituary

McDonald Moore was born on January 3, 1936 in Halifax County, North Carolina to the late Roscoe and Efta Taylor Moore. He departed this life on Thursday, January 11, 2018 at Kingsbrook Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York.

He had three sisters, Dorthy Davis, Thelma Jackson and Cather Mae Richardson, and three brothers, Ossie Moore, Julis Moore and Diamond V. Moore who preceded him in death.

McDonald received his education at Wards School in Halifax County, North Carolina. He joined Righteous Grove Baptist Church at an early age. He moved to Brooklyn, New York in 1956, where he met and married the late Eliza Simmons Moore in 1958, and to this union six children were born. He worked for Pace Ford Car Dealer and Metropolitan Private Sanitation until he retired in 2012.

He leaves to cherish his memories: six children, Avrial Moore, Donald Moore and Michell Moore all of Charlotte, NC, Kenneth Moore, Patrick Moore and Terrence Moore all of Brooklyn, NY; one sister, Etta Bouge of Whitaker, NC; one brother, James Moore of Queens, NY; sixteen grandchildren, five great grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Earline Withers of Charlotte, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. A few devoted relatives and friends, nephew, Derrick Withers; good friend, Delvina Gatlin; and grandsons, Corey, Jemaine and Antoine.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
