Obituary

Our beloved Jeffrey known to many as "Lovejoy", departed this life on Monday, January 15, 2018. Jeff was born on February 28, 1971 to Arminta Lovejoy and the late Charles Lovejoy, Jr. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his older brother, Willie.

In June of 1989, Jeff graduated from August Martin High School in Queens, New York. After working several odd jobs, Jeff proudly began a career with the NYPD as a transit police officer. After spending several years with the NYPD, Jeff moved his career interest to the transit authority as a station agent. He remained a dedicated transit employee until his final days on earth.

Jeff truly fell in love with life on November 16, 1990 when his daughter, Maiesha was born. In the last few years of his life he met and married Ms. Carlina Henry.

Jeff enjoyed rooting for and sharing stories of his favorite basketball team the Cleveland Cavaliers. He always took pride in his appearance and was known for his style and his many baseball caps. He was a people pleaser and always had the gift of gab. Jeff was a son, brother, nephew, husband, father, stepfather, grandfather, uncle and friend. If you knew Jeff, you loved Jeff.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Arminta Lovejoy of Queens, NY; his daughter, Maiesha; his grandson, Jaylen Toussaint; his four step-children, Imani Skye, Nazsia, Elijah and Carmelo; his two sisters, Cassie of Queens, NY and Anise (Darryl) of Suffolk, VA; two brothers, Alonzo of Queens, NY and Charles III of Scranton, PA; a devoted goddaughter, Asia; his beloved nephews, nieces and cousins; and many friends and extended family.

Dear Maiesha,

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me, I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't, get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too; but when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand, and said my place was ready, in heaven far above, and that I'd had to leave behind all those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye I knew that this was God's will, I dare not question "why?" so when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.
