Obituary

Michael Hayward Crosson was born on November 12, 1956 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Robert and Mamie Crosson who preceded him in death. Michael was the fourth child of six children.

Michael attended New York City Public Schools, P.S. 221, Winthrop Junior High School #232 and Sheepshead Bay High School. Later he found his passion and creativity in the culinary industry. Michael earned his culinary training at the college of New Rochelle and became a chef, working in major hotels in New York City. Michael would often at home take everything apart in the house, just to see how it functioned then put it back together again. He was known for being the "Jack of All Trades".

Michael leaves to cherish his memory: his siblings, Rosalyn (Kenneth), Luther, Valerie, Stacey, Robert (Annette); his nieces and nephews, Tameka, Lenise, Quianna, Justin, Qyaire, Rayetta and Qwayde; his great nieces and nephews, Shanice, Lennox, Destiney, Amarie, Charizma, Camille, Justice, Aubrey, Ava and LJ; and a host of cousins, family and friends.

*God saw you were getting weary
So He did what He thought was best
He came and stood beside you and whispered,
"Come on and rest". You wished no one a last
Farewell, you didn't even say good-bye.
You had gone before we knew it and only
God knew why. The flowers placed on
Your grave are going to wither and decay
But memories of our love for you
Will never fade away.*
