Obituary

Mother Virginia Fuller was called to rest in the afternoon of January 11th, 2018. She was the first born daughter of Thelma H. C. Lawrence who also had a second daughter, Virginia's "ONE AND ONLY SISTER", Josephine (deceased). They were both educated and raised in Portsmouth, Virginia.

While attending college she met and fell in love with her husband of fifty years, Leon A. Fuller, who preceded her in death. After leaving Portsmouth, VA, they arrived in New York City and began their family with the oldest, Joan Renee', second born, Deatra Yolonda, third born, Andre Leon (deceased) and Dorion Lamond.

Mother Fuller was raised in holiness under the leadership of Bishop R. C. Lawson and under Mother Carrie Lawson and Evelyn Lawson. When Jesus tells you to do something, He gives you the strength to do it!! Over the years, Mother Fuller helped numerous pastors and churches. She was a vessel helping out in various functions:

- She was a member in the National Women's Council under the leadership of Delphia Perry-Founder
- The 6 AM PRAYER BAND where she carried and bought many, receiving the Holy Spirit.
- A "deligent worker" with the BELOVED REFUGE WORKERS
- A member of The Refuge Temple "Marital Circle"
- She was a Missionary with "After Church Hospital Visitations also visiting with the Shut-Ins.
- Helping the old "Hands Across the Sea" youth choir, with Mother Annie Hayden, Founder
- A member of the Prayer Chain of Refuge Temple under Sister Mary Lembrick..and the list goes on.

Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise."

She leaves to cherish her memories: her most "treasured children", whom she truly loved, Joan Renee' (Rasheema Renee Vick); son-in-law, Joseph E. Vick and their children, Brandon, Lil Joe and Jason; Deatra Yolonda and her children, Fernando and Georgina; Andre Leon (deceased) his children, Andre' and Aaron; Dorion Lamond and his children, Shantell and Cleona; nieces, Donna, Denolis, Davida, Yvonne Gaynor and Dee-Dee Babb; grands, great grands, and one great-great grand, James, Jr.; grand nieces and nephews; and a host of other loved family members and friends.

THANK GOD for the life of "Virginia Fuller", because of the LOVE that she had for her CHILDREN, GRANDS, GREAT-GRANDS, and ONE GREAT-GREAT-GRAND...we are ALL ACHIEVERS in life and believers in JESUS CHRIST.
