Reflections of Life

William James Carter was born on October 26, 1934 in Hackensack, NJ to the late George and Edith Carter. He received an early education from School No. 10 and Eastside High School in Paterson, NJ. He was employed by Fisher Scientific for 31 years before retiring in 2004.

He was joined in marriage September 1968 to Carol Handy. Out of this union three children were born; Javette Sharee' Carter, Quinton James Carter and Andre' Lamar Carter.

William went by a few nicknames such as Brother and Brother Carter but he was mostly known as BC. He was a member of the Amazing Mets social club. He also had many hobbies but his passion was bowling. He was an avid bowler that bowled in numerous amateur leagues. He was the first black bowler in a Paterson league. At the age of 69, he bowled a perfect 300 game. BC enjoyed watching all types of sports but he was a big fan of the local teams. The NY Giants, NY Knicks and NY Mets were his favorites. When he wasn't watching sports, he watched westerns and game shows. He also took pleasure in reading the newspaper and dancing. The Wobble was his favorite song.

BC was predeceased by his son Andre Lamar Carter; brothers, George "Kulue" Carter Jr and Johnny "Slick" Salmond; sisters, Doris and Patricia Carter and Judy Mack.

He leaves behind fond memories to a family that loved him dearly; daughter Javette S. Carter; son Quinton J. Carter (Candice). One grandson, Quinton J. Carter Jr. Two brothers, Robert Carter (Erna) and Philip Carter. One sister Loretta Jenkins. A host of cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends. He also leaves behind his extended family that he loved so much; devoted partner, Kathleen Austin. Honorary daughter Kimeko Austin-Jones (Johnny) and Yulonda Austin. Five honorary grandchildren; Ashley, Tiffany, Daphnee, Kenneth and Jordan.

Dear Dad,

Although through the years we did not get to see each other as often as I would have liked, I will never forget the times we did share.

I will never forget..when you used to take Quincy and me to the bowling alley and the best part for me was the hamburgers. I also got to taste my first Shirley Temple which I thought was a real drink.

◆ I will never forget..when you used to call me after the Giants lost and ask me what's wrong with my team. At the time, I had no clue about football.

◆ I will never forget..when we saw the NY Knicks, your favorite team, play the NJ Nets at the Meadowlands and I had you take a picture with Sly, the Nets' mascot.

I will never forget..when we both filled our bags at the treatment center with lots of the free snacks.

I will never forget..dancing with you until I danced too fast, then you waved your hands at me and left me on the dance floor.

I will never forget..during my recent visits at the medical facilities, you always said "Javette Sharee' Carter" when I asked you my name.

I will never forget..how you would end each conversation with "I love you darling."

And Dad, I love you too! Always and Forever.

Your daughter,
Javette Sharee' Carter
