Obituary

Janette Snead

1931-2018

Janette Snead was born Janette Dortch on August 28, 1931 in New York City's Harlem Hospital. Janette was the oldest of seven children born to Evelyn and William Dortch.

She attended Seward Park High School and Apex Beauty School in New York City. Apex Beauty School certainly had an impact on her because she was always well groomed and her makeup was impeccable! She is affectionately remembered by her many nieces as the auntie who always wore her lipstick, rain or shine, smiling brightly, always a ready smile with a dimple on the side.

Janette was employed by New York City's Board of Education for a brief time. She was also a devoted member of Sharon Baptist Church in the Bronx. Janette was united with Mr. Leon Johnson for many years. She was the mother to Ronald, Antoinette and Kevin, who all preceded her in death, sadly.

Janette is survived by: her two loving sisters, Gloria Washington and Maxine (Mackie) Johnson; two grandchildren, Delor and Akien Johnson; five great grandchildren, Nadira, Samarah, Delor Tariq, Austin and Justin; and a host of nieces and nephews. Honorable mention to her dear friend, Kate. Honorable mention also to cousin, Allen Hargett who visited her every Thursday for the last ten years along with her sister, Maxine.

Janette will be remembered for her quiet disposition, ready smile, encouraging and kind words. We will miss her immensely! May GOD have Mercy on her Soul! Amen
