Reflections of Life

Carrie Bell Jones departed this life for eternal rest on January 20, 2018. She was born to the late Charlie R. Robinson Sr. and Maggie Robinson in Kershaw County Camden, S.C. on May 13, 1930.

As a dedicated member of St. Paul's Methodist Church of Camden, S.C., Carrie was a strong pillar of faith in her family and grew up becoming committed to the field of nursing.

She moved to Hackensack, N.J. in her early twenties where she met and married Leonard Jones of Paterson, N.J. with whom she raised four children.

Carrie was a woman of unshaken faith and a loving daughter, sister, wife, parent and grandparent who remained supportive to family close and far throughout her life.

She is preceded in death by 11 siblings and both parents.

She is survived by her husband, Leonard Jones Sr.; her sister, Hester Robinson; her children Leonard Jones Jr., Linda Jones-Scott, Michael Jones and Allyson Jones; her seven grandchildren; and her two great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and relatives.

Psalms 23 KJV

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in the green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.”

*We thought of you today
but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday
and the days before that too.*

*We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
All we have are memories,
and your picture in a frame.*

*Your memory is our keepsake,
with which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping,
We have you in our hearts.*
