Obituary

Angela Pond Davis was born February 17, 1936 in Dominica, West Indies to Ena Marcell and the late Wilfred Pond (Author of the National Song of Dominica).

Angela received her education at Wesley High School and was raised in the Catholic church.

Angela migrated from the West Indies in 1986 to the United States where she worked at the Grand Summit Hotel for 20 years.

“Angie” as she was affectionately called by her grandchildren, loved cooking, family, dancing and attending church. She will always be remembered for her love of playing cards and Calypso music.

Angela had the biggest heart and was always willing to help others and always saw the good in people.

She leaves to cherish her children, Ronald, Rudolph, Carl, Ursula, Dana, Joycelyn and Elroy; nineteen grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; brothers, Brinsley and Lipson; niece and nephew Junior Pond and Jennifer Pond; daughter-in-laws, Sherly Henry and Rima Augustus; son-in-law, Norbert Sorhaindo.

Angela will be missed but not forgotten.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth - you shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed, he will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, oh, the joy to see you come!*

Acknowledgement

We are fortunate in having dear relatives and friends who have given us comfort. Our family wishes to acknowledge the gracious words, prayers, cards, flowers, visits, support, care and other acts of kindness we have received from all of you. Whatever you have done to console us in our time of sorrow, we sincerely thank you. God bless each of you.
