Obituary

Donald Brown was born on May 10, 1952. He departed this life on April 6, 2020

Donald was the oldest of Mrs. Idella and Mr. Jack Brown's eight children. Don was proud to say "I was the first born".

Donald had no wife or children by choice. Donald made choices in his life that seem unhealthy but what you can say is that he lived his truth. Donald would always say "Thank God to see another day everyday." He now gets to thank God in person. He also "asked if you shot anybody yet".

Elisha... Donald remember when you asked us "so when did you get out, and why they let you out". He would say things that would just make you laugh. He would also cuss you out, but he would apologize later.

What he did have was a artists touch. He worked with charcoal. I remember a skull he drew with sparks around it Donald attended a trade school. Where he learned to fix things. He was a handy man in the neighborhood.

Nama...Donald "life is a series of hellos and goodbyes, I'm sad to say goodbye but hopeful we'll say hello again one day".

Donald remember my very first first fight. I was sitting in front of the house on buffalo when the kids across the street tried to steal my bike, so I grabbed the kid and slammed him into the basement door then the kids brothers came over to jump me but stopped. Apparently when I slammed the kid into the basement door Donald came up and seen what was happening and looked at them and balled his fist so they backed away.

Donald... Remember when Tricia found you over at Kings County Hospital. It was cold and windy and Tricia happened to be in that area and seen you. What you told me when she asked where you were going. You told her home. No matter where you went, you always found your way home. Now my dear you have a different home.

Donald was preceded in death by his parents, his grandparents, his brother, Michael Brown, his sisters, Bettyann Brown and Mary Brown, his aunt, Katherine Burns, aunt, Ada Bradham and his special aunt, Louise Bishop.

He leaves to mourn his passing his brother, Jackie Brown; three sisters, Debora Brown, Gwen Brown and Frances Bishop; aunt, Lou Ravenell; aunt, Susan Walters and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
