Obituary

Esther Stewart died suddenly on Thursday, April 2, 2020 at Morningside Nursing Home in the Bronx, New York at the age of 83. At the time, she was undergoing short term care and rehabilitation due to a stroke and heart attack.

She was born in August Town, Kingston Jamaica on May 20, 1936 to Christina Samuels and George Mattick's. Esther migrated to the United States and settled in the Bronx, New York where she raised her children.

She worked in Environmental Department at St. Vincent Hospital in New York for over forty years until her retirement. She enjoyed good food, socializing and gardening. Esther had a green thumb and loved planting flowers and spending time in her garden.

Esther is survived by her four children, Yvette, Pauline, Courtney and Clifford Stewart; ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren all of whom brought great joy to her later years.

*“Goodbyes are not forever
Goodbyes are not the end
they simply mean,
I'll miss you
until we meet again!”*

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
