Reflections of Life

Ronald Jermaine McCrimon was born on June 22, 1971 in Maimonades Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y. to Cynthia R. McCrimon (deceased) and Charles Utley (deceased). He grew up in Flatbush/East Flatbush (Brooklyn, N.Y.) and attended elementary school P.S. 92, Bildersee J.H.S. and Redirection High School.

As a child raised in a family household, under a God-fearing Christian great-grandmother Evielena Lewis (deceased), he faithfully attended, Mount Sinai Cathedral Church located in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Brooklyn, New York.

His love for arts and crafts and designs, as a teenager, adopted him the nickname Colon. He loved hip-hop, gospel, old school R&B and reggae music. In his adult years, he was a custodial worker, a short while, at New York City Technical College Brooklyn, N.Y. and did carpentry work part-time. He loved to cook various dishes and was creative in the kitchen. Fish, rice and steamed veggies was one of his favorite dishes. Ron loved his dog Brownie, which became his best friend following the passing of his mother.

He enjoyed family and was a big family oriented and spiritual person. He was very protective over his family and loved in a supreme way. Though kidney failure complicated his daily livelihood travels, he continued to give praise and acknowledgement to God's kingdom, attending Mt. Sinai United Christian Church (Staten Island, N.Y.) and studying biblical scriptures.

Ronald leaves behind to cherish his memories: brother, Ikim S. Whitley; sister-in-law, Kynda McQueen-Whitley; brother, Jermell McCrimon; sister, Tia McCrimon; grandmother, Erma J. Knight, Helen Francois; uncles, Michael McCrimon, Errol Knight and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

AT THE END OF THE DAY IT'S NOT ABOUT WHAT YOU HAVE OR EVEN WHAT YOU'VE ACCOMPLISHED...
IT'S ABOUT WHO YOU'VE LIFTED UP,
WHO YOU'VE MADE BETTER
IT'S ABOUT WHAT YOU'VE GIVEN BACK
