She moved to Paterson, New Jersey in 1955 and joined the New Christian Missionary Baptist Church where she was a member of the Choir and Nurse's Unit. She was a faithful member until her health began to decline. She attended Cosmetology School and was employed at Universal Manufacturing Company retiring after 25 years of service.

Earlean was a loving no-nonsense person who loved to laugh and dance. Her favorite dance was the junkyard dog, she taught it to all of her grandchildren. She also loved to cook and made the best fried chicken and fish.
