Obituary

Eustace Deryck Augustus Charles was born November 17, 1955 to Eustace and Lydia Charles in the village of Victoria, Guyana, the 5th child of 8 children. 4 sisters the late Anita, Dorothy, Agnes and Barbara. The oldest of 4 boys, Winston, James and Kenneth. He studied St Andrews Anglican School, Bedford Government School, Government Technical Institute, where he earned his degree in engineering. With his degree, he began a career as an engineer at Guyana Industrial Holding and Jerome McQuilkin. Migrating to New York City, he settled and worked as a Mechanical Engineer. He worked hard gaining the experience to become an independent engineer privately contracted from larger businesses. He married Ingrid Ramsay and became a father of 4.

On March 29, 2020 at the age of 65, Eustace Deryck Augustus Charles was granted his wings and joyed his beloved parents and sibling. He would be remembered as a man who loved tools and would fix any mechanical problem over time.

The question before us today is who was Eustace Deryck Augustus Charles? The answer is he was a son, brother, husband a father, grandfather and a great-grandfather. Eustace is survived by wife Ingrid, and four children Nicola, Deryck JR. Gary and Yolanda; 18 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, his siblings, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other family and friends who loved and will miss him dearly.

John 14:1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
