

I've Changed My Address to Heaven

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying, Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see. I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Isreal L. Glanton was the second of eleven children born to the late George Robert and Lillie B. Glanton of Clopton, Alabama. He was born September 25, 1928.

Isreal attended school in the Henry County School District in Alabama.

He departed this life on Monday, March 30, 2020 at Beth Israel Medical Center after a short illness.

Isreal was united in holy matrimony to Elsie M. Brown in 1959 to this union they were blessed with a daughter Patricia. Isreal and Elsie in their early years enjoyed going dancing and live shows. As years went on, they slowed down and enjoyed watching movies and game shows at home.

Isreal worked for Frye Roofing Company which later became Owens Corning Fiberglas as a Coater Operator for 35 years. After retirement in 1990 he assisted his daughter and son-in-law with pop pop duties, which they appreciated very much.

Isreal could have been a mathematician if he chose to. If you told him how much you were paid from your job, he could tell you how much FICA, SS and taxes would be taken out of your check.

Isreal was a gentle soul. He enjoyed being with his family especially with his wife, son, daughter and granddaughters.

Isreal was a sports enthusiast his favorite sports were baseball and basketball. On the weekends you would find him in local parks watching his brothers play baseball for the Newark Rookie Cardinals. On Sundays you would find him and four of his brothers watching games together at his brother Charlies, you would hear their excitement all over the house.

Preceding him in death were his parents, brothers; Robert J., Lonnie B., Willie, and Charlie; and sister Minnie Merle and Great Granddaughter Destiny Elyse Joy Wertz. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Elsie of 60 years; his children Isreal Jr. aka Mickey Glanton, Patricia (Gerald) Russell; Granddaughters: Tarajee (Fuquan) Wertz, Brittney Russell; Great grandson: Joshua Wertz. He also leaves to cherish his memory his three sisters, Rose Harris, Lillian (Fred) Braswell, Survena Kellum; two brothers, Bobby (Lorine) Glanton, Hurley (Flossie) Glanton, two sisters-in-law Bishop Barbara and Marie Glanton. Also, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
