Obituary

Louise Allison Wells was born October 8, 1922 in Pensacola, Florida to the late Eugene Allison and Roxie Taylor Allison. Louise was the oldest of three children, Joe who preceded her in death and Geneva. Louise was raised and educated in New York, New York.

Louise met Nero Leroy Wells, which later resulted in their nuptials in 1941. They were married for over forty years. Three children were born from this union, Jacqueline, Nero, who preceded her in death and Allison.

Louise worked for over 35 years as the Supervisor of OB-GYN, at Lincoln Hospital, New York City Health and Hospital Corporation. During her free time, she loved spending time with her family and traveling the world. Louise also enjoyed cooking/baking, sewing and growing her corn plants. Louise was a strong, feisty, but loveable person because all things were done out of love. She was a loving and caring person, devoted to her family and friends. Louise was a phenomenal woman.

Louise touched many and will be greatly missed. She leaves to cherish her loving memory, her sister Geneva and her children Jacqueline and Allison; her 5 nephews: Geary, Greg, Glen, Kim and Joseph, 6 grandchildren: Chris, Faruq, Nikia, Justin, Alexa and Sharif; 9 great-grandchildren, 1 great great-grandchild and a host of cousins and friends.

NATIVE AMERICAN PRAYER

I give you this one thought to keep—
I am with you still— I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sunlight on ripened grain,

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not think of me as gone—

I am with you still— in each new dawn.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou encreasest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
