Obituary

Daisy Michelle Williams (Boo) was born on March 24, 1969 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Mary D. Williams and Willie J. Williams. She was the third oldest of four children born to this union.

She attended Boys & Girls High School in Brooklyn where she graduated and gave birth to a beautiful baby girl. From there she enrolled at the College of New Rochelle. She then began her career as an assistant cook at Fort Greene Albany Senior Center in Crown Heights, Brooklyn. Shortly after she was offered a better opportunity and continued her career as a Cook at Maria Lawton Senior Center in Bedford Stuyvesant, Brooklyn until she started to become ill.

Daisy was well known for her great cooking and for being extremely personable. She was well respected in the community. She was very laid back but definitely outspoken if the situation allowed her to be. She had a heart of gold, if you ever needed advice or help with anything, she made sure if she had it then you did as well. Her kindness was pure, her smile was catchy with her dimples, and let's not forget her hazel eyes was beautiful specially when the sun hit them. They lit up just like her beautiful heart. There will never be another beautiful soul like Daisy, she definitely was one of a kind!

She leaves behind to mourn: her daughter, Sheriece Williams (Sherry); her grandchildren, King'Zion Mayo and Princess'Paradise Mayo; her son-in-law, Antoine Mayo (Chillie); her companion of over 20 years, Stephen Simon; her brothers, James Williams (Ev) and the late Warren Williams (Wiz); her sisters, the late Cassandra Williams (Asia) and Dorothy Dixon (Dot); aunts, Dorothy Hardy, Linda Livingston of Brooklyn, Lila and Gloria Simpson of Orangeburg, SC, Melody Simpson Smock, SC and Barbara Williams, Ruby Mae Green of Decatur, GA and Mary Young-Livingston of Stone Mountain, GA; her great aunt, Hattie Mae Graham of Brooklyn; her uncles, Leroy Williams of Brooklyn and Charles Graham; her nieces, Shiniqua, Nora, Minnie, Lateisha (Tee-Tee), Latisha (NaNa), Tashana, Tianasia and Mecca; her nephews, Tommy, Jonathan, Shawn, Tahlil, Dashawn, Warren Jr., Quan and Devon; and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins, family and many friends. She is deeply loved and will be greatly missed!

Letter from Daisy

As I sit in Heaven
And watch you everyday
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away
I hear you when you're laughing
And watch you as you're sleeping
I even place my arms around you
To calm you as you're weeping
I see you wish the days away
Begging to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone
Don't feel guilty that you have life
That was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just wait and see
So live your life, laugh again
Enjoy yourself, be free
Then I know with every breath you take
You'll be taking one for me
