Obituary

*M*r. Jacque Jean Noel transitioned peacefully on Thursday, April 23, 2020, in Brookdale Hospital, in Brooklyn, NY at the age of 88.

William was born on November 24, 1931, in Cavaillon, Haiti to Elvire Jean-Noel. He was orphaned when he was a child. In Haiti, he drove a taxi and led guided tours for visitors around the island. In 2005, he married Fernande Labissiere and moved to New York City. After moving, he worked for 20 years for the company Slant Fin, where he assembled boilers. Jacques will be remembered by his energetic and outgoing spirit.

Jacques also affectionately known as “Payam” loved to listen to his radio, visit family and attend family functions. Well into his 80’s, he was able to run errands and pick up groceries at the store. He also liked to attend community events like local parades to watch people and enjoy the music. He found great joy in having the freedom to move about and visit others.

Jacques is survived by his loving wife Fernande Labissiere and his sixteen children: Claude Carrie, Jean Saurel Dorilas, Elsie Rosier, Carrine Jean Baptiste- Conde, Clautelle St. Clair, Wilner Rosier, Marjorie Raymond, Magalie Conde, William Jean Baptiste Jr., Rachelle Theice, Darlene Sylvain, Nancy Henry, Martine Labissiere-Joseph, Stanley Labissiere, Patrick Theodore, William D. Guerruer, and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren. Jacque will be deeply missed by the entire family.

Look For Me In Rainbows

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment, and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Just wish me to be near you,

And I'll be there with you.
