Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all the tears from their eyes:” And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

- Revelation 21:4

The Circle Begins

Ms. Elsie Lene Edwards was born on December 18, 1932, in Wilson, North Carolina to the late Isabella Jones Tucker and late Doward Tucker, Sr.

The Circle Opens

Ms. Elsie Edwards graduated from Dorton High School. She worked in Howard Johnson Restaurant, Deluxe Doll Factory, and Imperial Tobacco Factory.

Ms. Elsie L. Edwards was married to the late Korean War Veteran, David Lee Edwards. She leaves behind: her children, Phyllis, David Jr., Carol, Thomas and John Edwards; brother-in-law, Rickie Leach; daughters-in-law, Lisa Edwards, Amelia Edwards and Deborah Edwards; nine great grandchildren; and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.

Ms. Edwards loved all her children, family and friends unconditionally. She believed in God and always told her family to love one another. She attended many churches, participated in the Senior Committees where she lived and sang Christmas Carols during the Christmas program in her community.

Ms. Edwards was a hair stylist back in her time. Her specialties were homemade bread pudding and pineapple cakes. She prepared special meals daily. On holidays, there were all sorts of dishes made.

Her favorite sports were the baseball (Yankees) and Smack Down (wrestling).

The Circle Closes

On April 24, 2020, Ms. Edwards crossed over the land of eternal living to join her mother, father, sisters, brothers and other family members.

The Magic of a Mother's Touch

There's magic in a mother's touch
And sunshine in her smile
There's love in everything she does
To make our lives worthwhile
We can find both hope and courage
Just by looking in her eyes
Her laughter is a source of joy,
Her words are warm and wise
There is a kindness and compassion
To be found in her embrace
And we see the light of Heaven
Shining from a mother's face.

Acknowledgement

The Family of Ms. Elsie L. Edwards wishes to express their sincere gratitude for the support and love extended by all during this time of sorrow.
