Obituary

“I demand to be respected and I’ve earned the title Queen”

That basically sums up Wanda Jennings. Born August 3, 1966 which was a time when powerful speeches and powerful people came into play. Wanda took her place among the power and began her beautiful life that would bless an array of family, friends and acquaintances with her bigger than life personality.

Wanda grew up in New York in the Bronx where she graduated high school and furthered her education at Monroe College. She later joined the police force for homeless services and continued her need to help and inspire people. Such an angel on earth she was until March 25th of 2020 when the Lord took her home. Wanda is survived by her five children, William, Corey, Bryan, John and Caleesta; along with an abundance of grandchildren.

Rest in peace Wanda you will truly be missed. We all love you.

Psalms 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
