Obituary

Lutricia Scott was born on February 28, 1944 in Winter Park, Florida to the late Dock and Annabelle Broadnax. Lutricia was the youngest of three sisters. She began her early education in Winter Park, Florida and around 1958 she migrated to New York City with her parents. She continued her education at Mount Vernon High School in Mount Vernon, New York.

Lutricia was known to her family and friends as "Trish". Trish traveled back and forth to Springfield, Massachusetts to visit her sister Yvonne and brother-in-law James Scott, Jr. In the early part of 1963, Trish met James' brother, Lorenzo Scott, Sr. and as fate would have it, they were married on November 29, 1963. They began their family in Springfield, Massachusetts and in 1965 they relocated to the Bronx, New York. Their union was blessed with three children.

Trish worked a variety of jobs throughout her life. In 2006, she retired from the United Cerebral Palsy Association of New York. In addition to being a wife, and a mother, she was a devoted member of Second Canaan Baptist Church. She served as a choir member and later was selected to serve as the president of the choir. She also served as the youth director and a member of the ladies Guild.

Trish enjoyed spending time with her family and extended church family. She especially enjoyed traveling to Massachusetts, Maryland, and Florida to visit her sisters and family.

Lutricia was preceded in death by her parents Dock and Annabelle Broadnax; her sisters Wanda Clyde Whitten and Celia Yvonne Scott; as well as her husband Lorenzo Scott, Sr.

Lutricia leaves to cherish her memory, three children Lorenzo Scott, Jr. (daughter-in-law Tonya) of Queens, New York, La'Kecia Scott Graham of Locust Grove, Georgia and LaShawn Scott of the Bronx, New York, Aunt Ramona Broadnax of Suitland, MD, Aunt Annie Lee Broadnax of Bridgeport, CT, Uncle Reverend Benjamin Broadnax of Forestville, MD; seven grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; three God daughters and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and extended church family.

To Our Mother

God looked around His garden and found an empty place.

He then looked down upon this earth
and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And He lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw your road getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.

Acknowledgments

The family would like to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them during their time of bereavement.
