Obituary

Eileen Isabel Conwell was born on June 6, 1931 in New York City to the late Bruce and Elma Clarke. She moved to Brooklyn at a young age. Eileen was educated in the Catholic and New York City public school system along with City University of New York.

Eileen was a devoted, loving wife and mother to her five children and other children who were less fortunate. She was employed as a Domestic Worker until she was hired by the New York City Board of Education in 1969 and retired after 25 years of service.

Eileen enjoyed traveling, trips, outings, parties and entertaining family and friends during the holidays. She was also a devout Catholic who taught religious instructions and was also a Eucharistic Minister. Eileen was very stern and out spoken but she always had your back and she had a great sense of humor.

After retirement, she remained active in the church, while rearing her grandchildren and attending the concerts at Wingate Park until she became ill.

On April 10, 2010 (Good Friday), Eileen was called home to be with the Lord. She was preceded in death by; husband's, Clifford Weston and James Conwell; daughters, Delilah Watkins and Diane Parkins and seven siblings.

She leaves to cherish her memory; daughters, Deborah Weston and Alice Mason; sons John Conwell and Adrian Conwell; grandchildren, James, Lisa, Marni, Lincoln, Deneen, Ian, Rashad, Cherokee, Karim, John, Jenny, Marsha, Kiera, Shawn, Novelette, Saleem, Robin and Tiana; great grandchildren, Kyon, Sheldie, Trinity, Morgan, Layla, Chace, Syan, Siah, Trent, Jett and Alani; great great grandchildren, Carson and Cricket; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and family; caretakers, Deborah Cole, Laurer Mantor, and Olivia Laidlow.

To Mommie, Grandma we love you and we're gonna miss you. Although you are not physically present, you will always remain alive through; children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, and many generations to come because we are the extension of your life.

A Mother's Love

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendored miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hands.*
