Reflections of Life

Mark Dwight Bennett also known as a Heartwarming Son, Blessed Brother and Devoted Friend was born in the parish of St Mary, Jamaica. He was born to his parents Pastor Cynthia Barrett and the late Kenroy Bennett.

Mark grew up in the district of Oraccabessa where he attended the Primary School then went on to the All Age School. Mark migrated to the United States of America in 1989 where he continued his education. Mark attended the Eastside High School where he graduated with honors in Mechanical Engineering in 1994. Mark was employed at an Auto Body in New Jersey where he carried on his Mechanical Trade for over ten years. Mark always loved his job he was a dedicated worker.

For all who knew him you could be anywhere out of town and once you dialed Mark he would be right there to give a helping hand. Life was a struggle for Mark when he became ill in 2016 and had to live on dialysis ever since. The Mechanical business was too heavy for him however he never gave up working. Mark took it upon himself to own his own Transportation business where he started transporting people to and from their destination.

Mark was such an amazing person to everyone he came in contact with. His kindness, his care, his love for all especially children. Mark you will surely be missed by your mother, Cynthia; sister, Elaine; brother, Leroy; nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, god children and most of all your friends. Mark we love you, but Jesus loves you best. May your soul Rest In Peace.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
