Obituary

Schuyler Cornelius Holt was born on July 22, 1929 in Rahway, New Jersey. He was the third child born to Emler and Louise Holt.

Schuyler grew up in Harlem where he not only attended school but through his older sister Alice met his soon to be bride, Olga. After graduating high school Schuyler enlisted in the Army and served several terms. During his service years he traveled to various locations throughout the world. He often shared stories with his family on his travels and for fun would state random words in the languages he picked up on. During one of his furloughs, Schuyler and Olga finally decided to jump the broom and were married on June 29, 1951. After an honorable discharge in 1953 Schuyler began his thriving career with Transit. He ended his career in transit as a towerman and enjoyed his retirement years with various weekend trips with Olga.

Schuyler was loved by not only those in his family but in his neighborhood as well. He was known for his daily walks around the block in which he would stop, talk, or give a simple greeting to those he knew. He was a talkative, stubborn, outgoing, funny, and loyal person. Most importantly he loved and supported his family.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Olga; brother, Elmer; sisters, Alice and Jean; nephews, Leroy, Tony, Albert, and Tyrone; nieces, Cheryl and Sandy; and brothers-in-law, Ike and Johnny.

He is survived by: his sisters, Dora and Vermelle; brother, Ronald; sister-in-law, Little Mae; nieces, Vernessa, Renee, and Shernice; as well as a host of great nieces and nephews. He was an influential part in the lives of his family and friends.

Schuyler will forever be in our hearts.

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
