Obituary

Emerson Kensley Collins , better known as Rumpy, was born on October 15,1957 to the late Eudene Olga Collins and Halton Ward in the Whim St. Peters Barbados. He was the fourth of eight boys. He attended the Speightestown Boys school.

After graduation, he began work at the Haymans Sugar factory in Barbados. Soon after he moved to the United States where he worked at Alle Processing.He began to work security at To Our Future with Health in 2003, which later turned to Foster House in 2009.

He met his Wife Sandra ‘ Lisa’ in 1994. They married in 2002. They shared 18 years of marriage together. In their union they had one daughter, Ashley.

Emerson enjoyed cooking, politics and all things sports. He was a die-hard New Yorkers fan. His teams were The Yankees, The Knicks, and The Giants, even when they lost. Emerson enjoyed watching his back home sport, Cricket.

So the question is who was Emerson Kensley Collins? Well the answer is Emerson was a quiet man, he loved his family and his dearest friends. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend.

After enduring a long illness , Emerson departed this life on April 26, 2020.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his wife, Sandra Lisa' Collins; daughters, Earlene ‘Janelle’ Walrond (Shawn Walrond) and Ashley Collins; son, Brian Skeete; step-son, Alex Richards. “Daughter-Like” Thais Sanders; grandchildren, Destiny Lopez, D’Brian Lopez, Jayson Clotter Jr. and Mayson Clotter; his brothers, Geoffrey Ramsey (Jasmine) , Trevor Collins (Karen), Rossevelt Collins, Selwyn Collins, Don Collins, Stephen Ward (Jamilah), God Daughter, Lizzy Mcburnie; and his brother Tyrone Collins, who preceded him in death and a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgements
