Obituary

To All family,

We are here to celebrate a life, the life of my father Carlos Alberto Ramos, my dad was born on February 26, 1962 born in the country of Honduras, to Elvira Benitez Cruz and Rejino Ramos. My father is the youngest sibling of his family from our grandmothers side. (his mother ). He has 1 brother and 2 sisters from his mothers side.

My father was raised in Honduras until the age of 26 years old he studied and went to school in Honduras. He came to the United States at a very young age and started working and dedicating his time to bringing his 3 small children he had left behind in Honduras. After he brought all of us to ny with him, he focused on work and on our education. He was a subliminal man and father figure in all aspects.

Many things come to mind when I think of my father, a man who never quit, a true believer of God, A man with an amount a faith I've never seen anyone possess. Humble in every way, true to his word and always positive in every situation. I remember when he didn't like suits and then one day I come to church and he's in a suit. A caring, a giving and loving man, many of us can have some qualities but not all, my father had them all. I don't know how to thank him for everything, but I'm sure he's watching.

Gone for now till we see each other again.

April 24, 2020 will be a day of remembrance

My love for you is eternal.

Only God Knows, how I truly miss you. What an Excellent Man once was, An irreplaceable Man is now Gone. Sadly to not be able to hear your voice is the greatest torment, not to be able to see you is the greatest tragedy. I honestly don't really have words because I don't accept the fact that you're gone and I never will. You was the greatest father a immature kid like me could've ever had growing up. You never left me. You taught me how to never quit, even when alone to continue and to proof to them that you can't be beaten. You always wanted to be my friend but I always have seen you as my héroe and my only friend. But I feel so defeated without you. I ask myself how to get advice now? All I can come up with is everything you taught me, all I have left is your advice in my mind. It pains me and it's not a mental pain but a physical constant pain that I know will never go away. Such humbleness from you I never knew a man can posses, such dignity that's beyond time, Such a wonderful son, grandfather, father, brother and husband incomparable to anyone. My only wish was to one day grow up and be just like you, but you always told me you wanted me to be better. I will never forget your wisdom and your advices and guidances, even now you are still the only person I could count on. I ask myself why did you leave?, An infinite amount of times and yet I still find no response. Where ever you are and whatever you're doing just remember that I will never ever stop loving you or missing you. Until I find you again in heaven. My heart leaves with you. Forever!

Carlos Alberto Ramos Sr. is survived by, Elvira Benitez Cruz, Carlos Alberto Ramos Jr, Carly Ramos, Carol Ramos, Samuel Ramos, Carlos Alfredo Ramos, Dunia Ramos, Ariel Ramos, Elvira R. Benitez, Priscilla Yanez and Rigoberto Yanez.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
