Obituary

Linda Maude Morrison (Brown), born August 29, 1932 (87) passed away peacefully on Friday, April 24, 2020 at Montefiore Hospital, Bronx, NY.

She was born in Bellfield District, Manchester, Jamaica to the late Louise Mullings and Daniel Brown. She was the youngest of three girls; Isolyn Patten, (who preceded her in death) and her sister Gloria Cooper, who resides in Florida.

When Linda was three years old, her mother passed away and she was raised by her aunt and uncle. Linda moved in with her sister Isolyn in Kingston and gave birth to her first child, Louise McLean. She met Reginald Morrison, got married and had 7 children: Edward, Delroy, Claudette, Dennis, Denice, Anita and Bryan Morrison.

Linda was a great woman, wife, mother, grandmother, mother-in-law, friend, and a sister. She had a warm smile and a big heart and she made everyone around her feel special. Linda loved to sing and was a member of the Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church. She also loved to cook, sew, and tell stories about her youth in Jamaica. She would talk for hours about being raised by her aunts and uncles, the hard work she did as a child living in the country, and being raised in the church.

Linda was preceded in death by her husband, Reginald and son, Edward and survived by her 7 children: Delroy and wife, Legget Morrison of Florida, Louise and husband Teddy Graham of Connecticut, Claudette Morrison of the Bronx, Dennis and wife Angel of Virginia, Denice and husband Stephen Joyce of Philadelphia, Bryan and wife Leandra Morrison of North Carolina, Anita Morrison of North Carolina, 18 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren plus her sister, Gloria Cooper and husband Theophilus.
