Obituary

Amelia Phillip at the age of sixty-seven who lived in Queens, New York passed away on April 21, 2020. Amelia was born Amelia Clementina Campbell Harewood in Colon, Panama on July 9th, 1952 of the late Louise Christiane Harewood Mariala (mother) and Ernesto Augusto Campbell (father). Amelia is the sixth child born out of seven children.

At a young age, Amelia came to the United States for a better life. She lived with her family in Brooklyn, New York where she resided with her late aunt and uncle, Essiemenda DeBourg and Frank DeBourg, along with her cousin Maritza Ragbasingh. Amelia attended middle school at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Brooklyn New York and graduated from Springfield Garden High School in Queens, New York. Amelia went on to have a beautiful family of her own, four kids named Annette, Terry, Nicole, and Stacey. Amelia worked hard most of her life to provide and care for her family. She held many job titles but was best known for working as a Mental Health Therapy Aide at Creedmoor Psychiatric Center for over thirty years and continued to work as a Rehabilitation Counselor at Transitional Services for New York City Inc.

Amelia is survived by her four kids, Annette Campbell, Terrence Campbell, Juanetta Phillip, and Stacey Sterling. She also leaves behind are her ten grandchildren, Tykim, Chase, Khendra, Tykiera, Kiyanna, Keith, Joshua, Isaiah, Faith, and Ka'sai, and her surviving siblings Roseta De Headly and Cesar Campbell. In addition to her children, grandchildren, and siblings, Amelia had a large loving family with a host of great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, family, friends, and co-workers.

Now Amelia has been called home to join God's army of angels. She continues to be loved and respected by the many lives she has blessed. We will also remember her bubbly personality, her crazy sense of humor, and her silly antics. Amelia was a kind-hearted, caring, and generous woman. The many who loved her will never forget her angelic smile and her infectious laughter. Amelia was and will also be a beautiful person inside and out, she was our Queen and will be dearly missed. She can now join her family in heaven, her parents Louise and Ernesto, and her brother's Eduardo, Generoso, Eric, and Arnold.

Amelia's last words on this earth were, "tell everyone that I love them". May she rest in peace but continue to live in paradise.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
