Reflections of Life

Judy Carol "Pearl Perry" Jeffery was born November 5, 1959 in Montgomery, Alabama. She was the daughter of the late Roosevelt Perry and Willie Mae Jeffery. God called her home on April 27, 2020.

Judy was raised and educated in the Bronx. She lived in the same building in The Bronx at 970 Tinton Ave for 39 Years. In that time she became well respected and popular in her neighborhood; feeding and helping as many people as possible. She was known for helping anybody from family to strangers whether it was a place to stay, a hot meal, a few dollars, or just some comforting words. Judy loved life; she was very funny and if you was around her you were sure to get a good laugh. She enjoyed spending time with her family. In fact, for about 20+years, her sisters and friends would gather at her house every Friday. They would play cards, listen to music, and just enjoy life. Spending time with her grandkids was a must. She was the best grandmother a child can have. She also enjoyed classic black and white movies, T.V. shows, and eating. Judy loved her job at Consolidated Bus Company as a Bus Matron. Always coming home with a story to tell. She was loved by many and will be missed tremendously.

Judy leaves behind; her two daughters, Quencia Ellis, and Mercedes Jeffery; two sons in-law, Shamah Ellis, and Kareem Elmore; four grandkids, Da'mizha Ellis, Shamah Ellis Jr., Kimora Elmore, Sai'ya Ellis and a unborn Sirow Ellis; six sisters, Patricia, Alfreda, Wanda, Gloria, Monique, and Matisha. She joins her other siblings in heaven; Robert Jr., Olivier, Paulette, and Roslyn; one uncle, John Henry. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
